

My Grief Map

Use only the parts that fit. You do not need to make the loss meaningful or finish this page.

The person or relationship I am grieving:

What I miss most right now:

What has changed in daily life because of the death:

A memory I want to keep close:

What grief is doing today

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Sadness | ☐ Anger |
| ☐ Numbness | ☐ Relief |
| ☐ Guilt | ☐ Yearning |
| ☐ Anxiety | ☐ Irritability |
| ☐ Exhaustion | ☐ Difficulty concentrating |
| ☐ Physical heaviness | ☐ Not much right now |
| ☐ Something else | |

Living With the Loss

Something unfinished, unsaid, or complicated:

A ritual, object, story, place, prayer, song, or practice that helps me stay connected:

A person I can be honest with about this:

One practical burden I need help carrying:

When a grief wave hits

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Be alone for a while | ☐ Be with someone |
| ☐ Move my body | ☐ Cry |
| ☐ Rest | ☐ Go outside |
| ☐ Look at photos | ☐ Avoid photos for now |
| ☐ Pray or use ritual | ☐ Write |
| ☐ Do an ordinary routine | ☐ Ask for practical help |
| ☐ Other | |

What I want others to understand about how I am grieving:

Safety note. If grief comes with thoughts of suicide, inability to care for basic needs, severe trauma symptoms, psychosis, or dangerous substance use, use a fuller clinical and safety assessment rather than relying on this worksheet.
